

Carnival Attracts Flower Beauty

Flower growers at Melbourne's National Flower Centre received a surprise early morning visit on Tuesday from Miss World Australia, Caroline Pemberton, to wish everyone well as they gear up for providing thousands of blooms over the coming weeks for Victoria's Spring Racing Events. Caroline also posed for a photographic shoot to help promote fresh spring flowers.

Caroline, who worked in a floristry shop for two and a half years, says that she just loves the beauty of flowers and is pictured in the Flower Centre wearing Singapore Orchids in her hair. Orchids are the official flower of the GPO Girls Night Out to be held at Moonee Valley this Friday.

While in the NFC Caroline also chatted to growers and posed for photographs with a number of our lucky growers and buyers. Caroline features on point of sale materials created for this year's Spring Racing Carnival.

Caroline wears a dress by 'Culture Shock' (www.cultureshock.com) hair by Aldo Raymond of Kew, flowers Geoff of Terrace Gardens. For further information on official races day flowers and florists visit www.marketfresh.com.au. A special thank you to Anthony Ruigrok and Bill Malikovski for the supply of flowers for the display.

did you know the raceday flower for the spring racing event "GPO Girls Night Out" is the orchid and "The Age Caulfield Guineas" is the mini gerbera?
